

All About You:

A Course in Character for Teens

Dorothy Kolomeisky

with

William Haines

and

Myra Stanecki-Kozlowski

The Whole Person Project, Inc.
Gaithersburg, Maryland

*All About You:
A Course in Character for Teens*

Copyright © 2001 The Whole Person Project, Inc.

All rights reserved. Printed in the United States of America.
No part of this book may be used or reproduced in any manner whatsoever without written permission from the publisher, except for brief quotations in critical reviews or articles.

Cover Art and Illustrations by Mia LaBerge

Book Design and Layout by Claude Aubert

Cover Design and Collages by Anne Ulvestad

Edited by Molly N. Cameron

Library of Congress Catalog 2001090386

ISBN 0-9710966-0-0

Published by
The Whole Person Project, Inc.
P.O. Box 3640
Gaithersburg, MD 20878-3443
Telephone/Fax: 301.527.8486
E-mail: wholepersonproject@home.com

This book is dedicated to all the courageous young people,
from coast to coast and across every ocean,
who dare to believe that one day
they will make their dreams a reality.

Special Thanks

So many heads, hands and hearts worked together to make this project a reality. It would have only remained an idea if it were not for the determination and commitment of the people who have generously contributed their time, talent and support to us. Our first and most important note of gratitude is extended to our parents—our true and unwavering root—who have given us wings to fly higher than we thought possible. We would especially like to thank our spouses for their extraordinary belief and trust in us—Genya, for his hours of reading and constructive criticism; Ruth for her beautiful attitude; and Steven for his endless support and sacrifices. A special thanks to all of the students, many from Albemarle High School, who volunteered their time and personal experiences to make this book alive and real. Much gratitude to Dr. Thomas Lickona for his contribution to the chapter on conscience, and sharing his expertise with us. Great appreciation goes to Terry Ward, for his tireless technical assistance; and to Kaylia Bravo and Oksana Yoon, for their administrative work, heartfelt dedication and enthusiasm—we couldn't have done it without them. A big thanks to Jody Hesler for her keen critical eye and hours of work in the earliest writing stages. Likewise, a big thanks to Elva Trevino-Hart, a wonderful writer, for being a source of real inspiration; and a special thanks to the Farmington Writer's Group. A warm thanks to Dr. Reid Linn & Dr. David Herr of James Madison University for living what they teach, and for their sincere and successful contribution to training teachers. Thanks to Ovidiu Crisan and Ed Burton for being there at the right time to offer your critical technical expertise. Much appreciation to Daryl Inda & Michael D'Angelo for their great spark and assistance with the photos. Our deepest appreciation to Ju Yeon Amrine and our sisters, who are a source of light and hope to us all—without them the realization of this project would not have been possible. We would like to warmly acknowledge Albertina Clarke-Bouterse for her passionate love of humankind that unites us together as one big family. A very special thanks to all those who made generous contributions to help us through tough times, especially the Burtons, Crawfords and Tachibanas. Many thanks to Richard Steinbronn for his invaluable legal advice and support. Sincere thanks to Jacqui Apostolides, Cindy Mahjoub and Daryl Clarke for their great love and commitment to the children of the world. We would like to recognize Christine Froehlich and Tony Devine, for their insight and partnership. Much gratitude is extended to some of the earlier contributors, including: Dr. Joon Ho Seuk, for his great vision and tenacity; Andrzej Wadas, for his invaluable input; Anna & Bogdan Brzyscy, for their brilliance and continuing support; and Oksana Semenchova-Vogt, for her talent and honesty. We applaud Lena Daughtery, for her pure heart, clear vision and courage to take a stand and represent young people everywhere. A warm thanks to some special educators: Bonnie Broderick; Alison Byer; Theresa Doherty; Jamie Brown; Sue Holden; Mike Bannister; Tanya Morosova; Bill Hinek; Cindy Moore; Shirley Miho; Peter F. Brown and Lois Daisey. A big thanks to Mike Inglis and Jonathan Gullery for being a fantastic and much needed resource. A special thanks to Dawn Van Patten, who brings color to every life she touches. Our sincere appreciation goes to Dr. Milton A. Reid and Levy Daughtery of the Martin Luther King Jr. Family Life Institute, for their consistent encouragement and for showing us by their own example that there are no mountains we cannot climb. Many thanks to the whole Laurita family—especially to Jason & Martynas for their kindness and talent. A most special and heartfelt thanks to Heung Jin Oppa for being a constant source of inspiration, a bridge to greater understanding, and for his boundless dedication to securing a better future for all.